TRUSTEES MEETING

DELEGATION OF CITIZENS ASKS BOARD FOR CONFERENCE —TAX REPORT

The regular meeting of the trustees of the city of Glendale was held in the city hall Thursday evening, December 21, 1916. Present, J. S. Thompson, president of the board, and Trustees R. M. Jackson, F. L. Muhleman, G. B. Woodberry. Absent, Trustee Chas. Grist. Also present, T. W. Watson, city manager; J. C. Sherer, city clerk; W. E. Evans, city attorney; H. B. Lynch, manager public service department; Ed M. Lynch, city engineer; G. H. Herald, city marshal; A. H. Lankford, fire marshal.

The minutes of the last regular meeting were read and approved.

An application for permit to sell milk was presented from Peter Jensen, also an application from D. H. Shaw for permit to conduct a dairy, and both being approved by the milk inspector were, on motion of Trustee Muhleman, granted.

The report of tax collector for the week ending December 21 was read, showing taxes collected for the week amounting to $877.39; total taxes collected to date, $38,166.99. The report was ordered to be filed.

A delegation of five citizens were present to present their views in regard to certain conditions existing in the city of Glendale, which as they claimed, are causing a certain amount of discord and retarding the progress of the city. Mr. Davis addressed the board suggesting that the trustees have a meeting with a committee of citizens for the purpose of discussing the situation. The chairman of the board stated that the trustees always have been and are now ready at any time to give any citizen or citizens full opportunity at any meeting of the board to express their views upon any subject that is proper to bring before the board.

The city engineer reported that the improvements of Glendale, avenue north of First street is practically completed and will be ready for acceptance in a few days.

A demand having been presented in the sum of $12 in payment of a cup purchased by order of trustees as a prize to be offered at the recent poultry show in Glendale, the chairman of the finance committee explained that the cost of the cup was $10 and that $2 represented the cost of engraving the same. With this explanation, the demand was approved and the warrant ordered to be issued.

A communication was read from J. Whomes presenting his resignation as city recorder to take effect at the will of the board, the same being offered on account of his ill health. On motion the resignation was received and ordered to be filed.

The city attorney reported in regard to Sycamore Canyon road that three of the defendants whose names are included among those to be served in the case have died since proceedings began, but that he expects to secure satisfactory stipulations from the successors to their estates.

On motion of Trustee Muhleman a leave of absence for three weeks was granted to Trustee Grist.

ROUND TABLE GIRLS

The Girls of the Round Table, a jolly little social and reading club, met at the home of Miss Blanche Shea, 308 Brand boulevard, Tropic, on Tuesday evening. The regular program was set aside for the preparation of Christmas day charity work when the girls will supply a needy family in Los Angeles with a concrete expression of the Christmas spirit and "peace on earth, good will to men." The young ladies present on Tuesday evening and who compose the club are Misses Gladys Hamilton, Effie Hamilton, Edna Brown, Esther Jones, Catherine Hobbs, Dorothy Hobbs, Olive Moffett and Blanche Shea.

MOTHERS' READING CIRCLE

The Colorado Boulevard Mothers' Reading Circle met at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Chambers, 369 South Glendale avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. The circle is at present reading the "Dawn of Character" by Mumford, in the reading course sent out for mothers by the government. The course includes three years' reading and each individual receives a diploma on the satisfactory completion of the course. Mrs. Chambers is the organizer in the Colorado school district and hopes soon to organize several other reading circles. Ten different courses are sent out by the government. Further meetings of the circle have been postponed until after the holidays.

CO-OPERATION SPIRIT

PEOPLE WANT TO GET IN CLOS- ER TOUCH WITH CITY AUTHORITIES

S. A. Davis and others appeared before the board of trustees Thursday evening asking if the board would think best to appoint a committee to confer with a committee of the citizens of Glendale upon how it might be possible for all to get together on the question of making clear to the voters the question that Glendale really needs better fire protection. Mr. Davis intimated, when addressing the board, that there seemed to be a lack of co-operation between the citizens and those whose duty it was to call the bond election. He suggested that if a get-together meeting could be arranged for and a face-to-face conference engaged in, differences of opinion might be satisfactorily settled, which in the end would result for the best interests of the city. He said that a meeting at this time of the year just in the midst of the Christmas season when everyone is talking peace and harmony would be very appropriate. It was Mr. Davis' opinion that the majority of the people of Glendale actually favor better fire protection but there is a lack of co-operation as to how best to secure it.

J. S. Thompson, president of the board of trustees, replied to Mr. Davis' remarks by saying that the board had always made a practice of allowing all citizens to be heard whenever they wished to attend any of the regular meetings of the board and in behalf of the board Mr. Thompson stated that if a committee of citizens wished to meet the board in regular session due consideration will be given anything they have to say. Mr. Davis replied by saying that he would report to his committee the invitation as presented.

CHILDREN'S PARTY

The Thursday Afternoon Club gave a delightful Christmas program at its regular meeting Thursday afternoon, when the children of the members and other invited children were the guests of the club. The hall was dressed in a festive garb of holly and Christmas greens and a beautifully decorated Christmas tree was laden with goodies for the children, about fifty being present to enjoy the afternoon. The program included piano selections from "Faust" by Mrs. Frye; a reading, "Christmas Greens," by Mrs. Evans, who responded to an encore with a reading entitled, "The Night Before Christmas"; a vocal solo, "Holy Night," was charmingly rendered by Miss Harriett Lanterman, and Mr. Lowinsky gave two violin selections which were thoroughly enjoyed and appreciated as the numbers given by this talented violinist always are. Following the program the gifts were distributed to the children from the tree and the older folks enjoyed the dainty refreshments served. A most delightful, happy day, full of the joy of the Yuletide, was spent by both young and old.

EAGLE ROCK FINANCES

NEIGHBOR CITY PROSPEROUS— MUNICIPAL BOND BID- DERS NUMEROUS

In the current week's issue of the Eagle Rock Sentinel that paper speaks as follows of the good credit of the city:

The city trustees held a most eventful meeting on Monday evening. It will long be remembered in financial circles of this section. It demonstrated the faith of the big financiers in Eagle Rock and Southern California securities. For some of the strongest bond companies in the country competed in the purchase of the $70,000 bonds recently voted by this city for the buying of the local water distributing system. There were seven bids received, and there were a number of representatives of banks and bond houses present to watch results. And when the first bid was opened every one present sat up and took notice.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the chairman announced the time had arrived for the opening of bids. City Attorney Hatch first read letters from Bordwell & Mathews of Los Angeles and John C. Thomson of New York City, expert bond attorneys, approving all of the proceedings in connection with the bond issue. As all of the bidders signified their willingness to take the bonds on the approval of these attorneys, this settled the question of legality.

The following were the bids received:

California State Board of Control, at premium of $6,435.

Blythe-Whittier Co., $4,408 premium.

Torrance, Marshal & Co., $4,303 premium.

A. W. Woolacat Co., $3,000 premium.

E. H. Rollins & Sons, $4,305 premium.

Aronson-Gale Co., $3,125.

Wm. R. Staats Co., $5,267 premium.

The State Board of Control was the highest bidder by $1,168 over the Staats Company, but the former requires that all proceedings and acts be approved by the attorney general of the state and bonds delivered at Sacramento, and the city board was in doubt about the advisability of accepting this bid or closing the deal at once with the next highest bidder. And on motion of Trustee Galpin final action was delayed until Tuesday evening.

On Tuesday evening the board met in an adjourned session and voted to accept the high bid of the State Board of Control at a premium of $6,435.

The blank bonds will be ready in about a week, and then the city treasurer and city attorney will take the officially executed bonds personally to the state treasurer at Sacramento and get the $76,435 in cash.

We have not all the figures at hand, but judging from the sale of the Hollywood, Covina, Bairdstown and other sales recently, it is pretty evident that the Eagle Rock water bonds come pretty close to the high water mark in this state for municipal securities. It is interesting to note that if the premium alone was applied to the sinking fund it would pay all of the first year's interest and the two bonds due in January, 1918.

DEATH OF JOSEPH EBE

Word was received today by Mrs. W. Hall and Miss Ebe of 544 Orange Grove avenue of the death of their father, Mr. Joseph Ebe, at Medford, Oregon, at 6 o'clock this morning. The news came as a great shock and is doubly sad owing to the fact that their mother, who came to Glendale a short time ago for her health, has been ill with pneumonia for about a week and is at the present time in a very critical condition at her home. Miss Ebe, who has been faithfully nursing her mother, was completely prostrated by the shock of the news of her father's death and it was necessary to call a physician, but she is much better at the present writing. Mr. Ebe was also an uncle of B. Eachus of 506 Orange Grove avenue.

MESSERLY BUYS IN GLENDALE

E. A. Messerly, formerly of Los Angeles, is the new owner and occupant of the beautiful dwelling house at 1102 West Colorado boulevard, Eagle Rock, which place is on the dividing line between Glendale and Eagle Rock. The house is being remodeled and the premises beautified, a tennis court installed, and other needed improvements are being made. The sale of the property to Mr. Messerly was made by Sam P. Stoddard.

AT STATE CAPITOL

CONTROLLER JOHN CHAMBERS TOUCHES MANY IMPORT- ANT MATTERS

State Controller John S. Chambers, in his biennial report intended for the coming legislature, has a number of short chapters touching upon various important subjects.

In the matter of the emergency fund, which is the fund to be drawn upon to help out an office, department, institution or commission should its funds be depleted, he takes the ground that the total of such a fund should not exceed $100,000, the figure fixed two years ago. Prior to that time it had been $75,000. Chambers takes the ground that a large emergency fund would be a temptation—an invitation to draw upon it for matters that really would not be emergencies.

State Controller Chambers repeats in his report the warning issued two years ago against exempting this or that class of property from taxation. He points out that the state under the present system of taxation is not directly concerned in this policy, but that the counties and the cities are, and that where any class of property is exempted then a proportionate additional burden is thrown upon classes of property not exempted. He takes the broad ground, in addition, that the policy of exempting property from taxation is wrong in principle.

Mr. Chambers states that careful calculations show the state government is losing at least $250,000 a year because of jitney and automobile competition with the electric and steam roads. These roads are taxed by the state upon their gross earnings. The automobiles have cut into these gross earnings sufficiently to reduce their totals so that the loss of tax revenue to the state is fully a quarter of a million dollars. He takes the ground that the state would not only be justified, but should impose a license upon automobiles engaged in public transportation business which would be equivalent to the gross earnings tax required of the railroads.

CITY ATTORNEY'S BANQUET

Wednesday evening, Atty. Frederick Baker attended a very enjoyable banquet and entertainment given by the city attorney of Los Angeles and his deputies to the City Attorneys' Association of Southern California. The affair was held at the beautiful home of Mr. W. A. Spaulding in East Los Angeles. About forty were present, all judges and lawyers, nearly all the cities and towns of Los Angeles county being represented. A notable feature of the evening was a very interesting talk on the La Brea remains of prehistoric animals, illustrated by stereopticon slides, given by Mr. Howard Robertson.

FOR THE CHILDREN

Saturday morning at 9 o'clock Mrs. Danford, Glendale librarian, will conduct a Christmas story hour at the library. This is for children under twelve years of age and it is very likely that the children's room will be filled to its capacity as was usually the case during the Wednesday morning story hours held during the summer. All children under twelve years of age are invited. Nine o'clock is the hour, Saturday, December 23, the day and the Glendale library, Fifth and Kenwood streets, the place.

OPENS NEW GROCERY

G. E. Alexander, recently of the state of Tennessee, has opened the center storeroom of the new K. P. building at Park and Brand, Tropic, and will open a basket grocery Saturday, December 23. Mr. Alexander has had considerable experience in the general merchandise business in the east and has opened a first class store, which on account of its central location will doubtless do a thriving business.

DEATH OF MRS. COLBERT

Mrs. Catherine C. Colbert, mother of Herbert D. Lore, passed away at the home of her son, 1430 Salem street, at 8:30 a. m., Thursday, December 21. Mr. Colbert was born in New Jersey but had resided in this state for the past five years. The remains are at the Pulliam Undertaking Parlors awaiting the arrival of Mr. Lore, who was near Kingman, Arizona, at the time of his mother's death. Mr. Lore is expected home Saturday evening and funeral arrangements will not be made until he returns.

KNOWING THE COST

Business in general suffers in this age from price cutting by firms who do not know what their actual costs are or who disregard their costs in the blind belief that getting volume without regard to cost is good business. Vice-Chairman Edward Hurley of the Federal Trade Commission recently said in an address before the American Iron and Steel Institute in New York: "Perhaps foremost among the important questions of business policy is the importance of knowing definitely your true costs of manufacture and distribution. General demoralization in a large number of industries has been caused by firms who cut prices not knowing what their goods actually cost to manufacture."

This condition exists in the business world along all lines, both in the small business and the large, and it tends to make conditions more difficult for all concerned. Mr. General Public as a usual thing isn't concerned about the profits of the manufacturer, contractor or merchant. If he gets a certain article at a certain price at one store, he believes that the man who asks more is making an exorbitant profit upon that article. While the price asked by the second man may only give him a fair margin on the cost price of the article, his business is injured by this incident. The same thing is true in all lines of business. The contractor who bids on a job without taking into consideration every detail of expense connected with doing the work, in the vain belief that he can get through some way and places his bid at a figure that will land the job, is doing an injury to every man in that line of business. This condition will not improve until the business man, the contractor and the manufacturer learn to look at this matter from an intelligent viewpoint. The gist of the whole matter in selling an article or contracting for a job of work is to know definitely what the thing costs.

FAIRNESS IN CRITICISM

There is a tendency on the part of well-meaning people to become inactive and through no bad intention neglect duties they are expected to perform. A word of criticism offered with good intentions will sometimes result in awakening the latent powers of the person who is slowly plodding along, giving little concern to the possibilities that lie before him. Criticism may serve as a stimulant and thus arouse the dormant faculties of one's being, and transform a life of failure into a life of triumphs.

It is an undisputed fact that some of the most convincing arguments upon great questions have been produced by men who were aroused to an almost supernatural state of mind on account of severe criticism. Criticism is either just or it is unjust. If it is just it should be received by the one for whom it is intended with a spirit of kindness. If it is unjust, the person for whom it is intended should give it no attention. There is indeed something noble about the man who can make an honest declaration acknowledging that he is in the wrong when he knows he is in the wrong. Criticism wisely directed may serve as a mirror for the person being criticised. If the reflection of himself in the mirror is a perfect one, he will have no cause to object to stand before a mirror, but if the reflection is a ghastly one he will dread to go before the mirror. All criticism should be offered in a spirit of fairness.

WATER FOR COWS

All animals require plenty of good, pure water. This is especially true of the milking cow, as water constitutes more than three-fourths of the volume of milk. The water supply, therefore, demands the dairyman's most careful attention. Stale or impure water is distasteful to the cow and she will not drink enough for maximum milk production. Such water may also carry disease germs which might make the milk unsafe for human consumption or be dangerous to the cow herself. During the winter, when cows are stabled the greater part of the time, and unless arrangements have been made to keep water before them all the time, they should be watered two or three times a day. If possible, the water should be 15 or 20 degrees above the freezing point, and should be supplied at practically the same temperature every day. When water well above freezing temperature is stored in tanks and piped direct to the cow, there is probably little occasion for facilities to warm it; but when it stands in a tank on which ice often forms, it usually pays well to warm it slightly. This can be done by a tank heater, by live steam, or by hot water from a boiler. If a boiler is used for running a separator or for heating water to wash and sterilize utensils, steam from it can readily and cheaply be used to warm the water.

CONSTRUCTIVE VS. DESTRUCTIVE

Build up and not tear down, should be a motto of every good citizen. If you can not have your way, support a feasible measure that is presented by some other one. Do not stand still, or do not pull back because you can not have your way of running affairs of church, school or city. Be a worker,—be a hard and consistent worker,—do not work for praise, but work for results.

Get your mind and your hands busy doing something for yourself, for your neighbors, and for the city, county and state in which you reside.

SECOND HAND REPORTS

A second hand report is not reliable information. Therefore it is not a good plan to give publicity to hearsays.

You would better verify what you hear in the way of rumor. False reports often do a harm that can not be made right.

Be slow to say things that will damage a fellow man. If you have something good to say of him say it, and if you have not something good to say, hold your peace.

NO PAPER CHRISTMAS

The Evening News will not be published on Christmas. That day is one of the six holidays of the year for those employed in the office of the Evening News. If you have a rush job of printing for Christmas bring it to this office early tomorrow morning and it will be completed by 4:30 tomorrow afternoon. Do not expect us to do work for you on Christmas. The Evening News holidays are: Christmas, New Years, Decoration day, Fourth of July, Labor Day and Thanksgiving.

EDITORIAL ELYSIUM

"Fellow dropped into the office the other day and ordered the paper, and we were pleased," writes a brother editor. "Said it was a good paper, and we were glad. Said it was more than worth the money to any man of intelligence, and we were tickled. Said it was the mainstay of the town, and we were super-tickled. Said it was the greatest booster and the most reliable town builder and developer in this whole community, and we yelled with much joy. Paid for his paper, and—we slid gently to the floor in blissful unconsciousness. Nature had reached its limit."

FOREWARNED

"If we are going to be married, you must give up smoking," she said.

"Yes," he agreed.

"And drinking, and your club."

"Yes."

"And playing cards for money. Now, doesn't anything else suggest itself to you that you will give up of your own accord?"

"Yes."

"What?"

"All idea of getting married."

BUSY ALL THE TIME

Little Harold came in the other day, crying and rubbing several bumps caused by a series of "butts" administered by a pet sheep.

"Well, Harold," said his sympathetic auntie, "what did you do when the sheep knocked you down?"

"I didn't do anything; I was getting up all the time."—The Delinquent.

IN SWITZERLAND

In one of the schools in St. Paul, Minn., a fifth grade class was asked in examinations to name five countries of Europe, their capitals and forms of government.

After naming four correctly, a boy concluded with the statement: "The capital of Switzerland is Berne. They have no form of government, because they can hide in the mountains."

PARENTS--

Present-day tendencies are inculcating habits quite the opposite of thrift—compare the demands of your children with your own needs a few years back.

To prepare your boys to take their places in the world of industry, and to help them to gain the mastery of themselves and assure their progress, and to prepare your girls for their places in homes to be.

Then first show your children what consistent thrift is by saving the small sum.

Personals

Mrs. B. L. Cline of 420 West Ninth street is again able to be out after her recent attack of appendicitis.

Wilbur Lee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Lee of Cedar street, has been confined to his home with an attack of la grippe.

Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Scheuer and family of New York have come to Glendale to spend the winter and have taken the house at 1527 Ivy street.

Dr. Anna McCalla and two children are here from Santa Barbara, spending the winter with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. I. H. Durfee of 508 South Brand boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Anderson, formerly of Cedar street, have taken an apartment at 530 South Louise street and are selling their household goods preparatory to moving to Arizona in the course of a few months.

I. S. Brown has been taken to his home, 1317 Lomita, from Thornycroft hospital, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis on Monday, December 11. He is recovering very fast and will soon be on his feet again.

Mrs. H. E. Bowman and little daughter of Tropic have gone to Calexico to join Mr. Bowman, who went to Calexico about a month ago where he is connected with the customs service. Mr. and Mrs. Bowman will make their home in that place for the future.

Mrs. Olive J. Smith and daughters, Misses Frances and Grace Smith, of Blair, Nebraska, are guests at the home of Mrs. Frank W. Chambers, 860 South Glendale avenue. Mrs. Smith is Mrs. Chambers' aunt and she and her daughters will spend the winter at Long Beach.

W. A. Leach of Redondo Beach took lunch with his mother, Mrs. E. E. Olmstead, of 124 North Glendale avenue, Thursday, bringing her one of his fine young turkeys, which will grace her table on Christmas day. Mr. Leach said that he has had splendid luck with his turkeys this year.

R. O. Wildman of 120 East Laurel street, Tropic, has purchased a new auto truck. He has been conducting the Tropic Express Company with a horse and wagon in the past. He has also purchased the business of the Martin Transfer Company of Glendale and will hereafter do business under the name of the Tropic Auto Express Company.

Painters are at work repainting the rest stations along the Pacific Electric on Brand boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Davis and family of 515 Orange Grove avenue are planning to spend Christmas with relatives in Hollywood.

Mrs. H. MacDonald of 1533 Pioneer drive will have as a guest for dinner on Christmas day Mrs. G. McKay of Los Angeles.

Our sister city, Eagle Rock, will have a floral float in the parade at the Tournament of Roses in Pasadena on New Year's day.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Cline of 420 West Ninth street will spend Christmas day at the home of Mrs. Cline's mother, Mrs. S. B. True, of West Fifty-sixth street, Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Crocker of 121 Cedar street and Mrs. Crocker's mother, Mrs. Armbruster, will spend Christmas day in Los Angeles with Mr. and Mrs. Phelps of Chicago, who are wintering here.

Miss Alice Frank, director of the Glendale branch of the Egan school, is entertaining the children and their mothers this afternoon with a Christmas party at Butler's hall. A masque ball is to be held at the same place this evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Crampton and daughter, Miss Grace, of 1611 Chestnut street, and Mr. and Mrs. R. P. Isitt of 872 Damasco court, will motor to Long Beach to spend Christmas day with Mr. and Mrs. Meyers. Mrs. Meyers is Mr. Isitt's and Mrs. Crampton's sister. They will be accompanied by Mrs. M. E. Flynn of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Duffield will be dinner guests on Christmas eve of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Burton of 2124 West Thirtieth street, Los Angeles. On Christmas day they will entertain with a dinner at their home, 1222 Lomita avenue, Mrs. S. L. Spaulding and son Lyman, Mrs. Catherine Vaughn and Miss Marion Vaughn of Los Angeles, and Mr. and Mrs. James Neill of Glendale.

C. H. Henry, a local real estate dealer of 850 South Brand boulevard, has discovered a fine graphite mineral deposit near Glendale and has filed his claim on same and will organize a local company to develop the project. The product will assay 25 per cent or better and lies in a vein eighteen feet in thickness. This is a very valuable find as most graphite only assays from 2 to 5 per cent in the crude state.

Dr. and Mrs. H. R. Boyer of 1317 1/2 Hawthorne street will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Fauri on Serrano street, Los Angeles, on Christmas day.

Mrs. Mary M. Bowman and E. L. Carreau of Los Angeles will be dinner guests of the Ed Virden family at 235 Mira Loma avenue, Tropic, on Christmas day.

Mr. and Mrs. Perce Curtis of 1304 North Central avenue will spend Christmas day with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Charlton, at Boyle Heights, who will have a family reunion of about fifteen relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Temple will go to Redondo Beach to spend Christmas with Mrs. Temple's sister, Mrs. H. C. Wright, who will have a family reunion of about twenty-two relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. I. H. Durfee of 508 South Brand boulevard will entertain the following guests on Christmas day: Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Sawyer and daughter of Los Angeles, and Mrs. M. E. Ford of Hollywood.

Mrs. S. E. Trimble, who has been residing at 1011 Maple avenue, leaves tomorrow for Los Angeles, where she will spend some time before returning to her home in Nebraska. Mrs. Trimble spent the past three months in Glendale and greatly enjoyed her residence here.

A family reunion and dinner will be held at the Wm. Shea home at 308 South Brand boulevard on Christmas day. The guests will include Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bennett and children, Mrs. Blanche Shea, Mrs. S. H. Scott and Miss Mamie Shea of Inglewood, and R. C. Springer of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Lyons of 425 South Cedar street will go to La Canada Saturday to extend holiday greetings to Mr. Lyons' parents, and on Sunday afternoon they will go to Los Angeles to spend Christmas with Mrs. Lyons' parents, Dr. and Mrs. O. J. Furst at 37 West Thirty-seventh place.

From present indications the 34th senatorial district, Los Angeles, will not be represented in the next legislature. H. Stanley Benedict was elected to congress, thus causing the vacancy. Governor Johnson has not announced whether he will call a special election to choose a state senator from this district.

The banks of Los Angeles and other Southern California cities are being warned by government officials to be on the watch for counterfeit $20 bills believed to be the product of an cutaw mint located near the Mexican border. The bogus bills of the "Cleveland head" type, drawn on the federal reserve bank of Philadelphia, and are said to be excellent imitations.

A happy event of the week will be the wedding this evening of Miss Mabeth Pigg, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pigg, of 127 South Brand boulevard, to Mr. Thomas Furst. The bride-to-be is very popular and many affairs have been held in her honor the past few weeks. The nuptial knot will be tied at 8 o'clock this evening at the Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Brown will entertain a number of friends with a dinner and Christmas tree on Christmas day, among whom will be Mr. and Mrs. Lee Arthur White of 4021 Halldale street, Los Angeles, who are former Iowa friends of the Browns, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Hollister of Glendale, and Mrs. W. W. Beal of Waterloo, Iowa.

Miss Melicent Virden of 235 Mira Loma avenue, Tropic, assisted Madame Constance Balfour and Carl Bronson's choir in a program given Saturday night at the Haven M. E. church in Los Angeles for the benefit of H. Isaacs, a prominent settlement worker who had the misfortune a short time ago to be run over and injured by an automobile. Quite a goodly sum was netted for Mr. Isaacs and his family.

The state survey of the proposed Arroyo Seco mountain road to Antelope Valley will be finished this week. The surveying crew that started into the mountains from Pasadena worked as far as Colby's Camp, while another started from Vincent and worked to the Mill creek divide. The road will open up a section of the country rich in scenic effects.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert De Gaston of Sacramento will arrive in Glendale Saturday evening to spend Christmas with Mr. and Mrs. Percy De Gaston of 415 North Glendale avenue, and will remain until New Year's. Mr. De Gaston has planned a very interesting trip for his brother and wife for next week. They will leave on Wednesday for a motor trip to Mt. Wilson, Mr. De Gaston having received a permit to look through the big telescope, a very special privilege. The party will stay over night at Mount Lowe to observe the night effects. As the drive is also a very beautiful one they are anticipating a very splendid and interesting trip.

If we choose our friends for what they are, not for what they have, and if we deserve so great a blessing, then they will be always with us, preserved in absence and even after death, in the chamber of memory.—Cicero.

CHRISTMAS SUGGESTIONS

The Evening News has many loyal supporters in the Glendale community who wish the paper well. The existence of the paper depends upon the advertising and the subscription patronage given it. Now if the people who wish the News success will so far as possible patronize the merchants whose advertisements have appeared in this paper from time to time the favor will be greatly appreciated by the publisher.

IMPORTANT AUTO HINTS

The most important item to observe when driving an automobile is to keep the auto on the right side of the road. If every driver will carefully observe this rule there will be little chance for accidents.

Another important item to observe is to drive slow upon nearing a thoroughfare crossing. These two rules closely observed will prevent many auto accidents.

TOURISTS IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

This is the season of the year that tourists from the east and middle west are spending a few months in California. Many of these tourists will become so in love with the conditions in California that they will decide to remain here permanently. The tourist who perchance visits Glendale is pleased with the appearance of this beautiful little foothill city and some of them will choose Glendale as their future place of residence. Well kept lawns, neat appearing business buildings and a courteous greeting from our citizens will aid greatly in bringing additional settlers to this section of the valley.

The rapidity with which the ranks of the Civil war veterans are being thinned out is shown in the report just made by President Bacchus of the board of directors of the Veterans' home at Yountville, in which the number of deaths during the past year is given as 110, a rate of almost ten a month. The average age at time of death was 75 1/2 years. There still remain in the institution 703 Civil war veterans whose average age is 72.62 years and six Mexican war veterans, whose average age is 91.7 years.

SUNLAND

Mr. B. F. Mears returned Monday evening from a week end visit in Los Angeles.

Mrs. A. T. Blumfield spent Saturday in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reinstadler and Miss Zita Hess and Charlie Hess motored from Los Angeles Sunday morning and were guests for the day of Mr. and Mrs. Al Shelly at their home on Sherman street.

Mrs. Howard Griffith was the week end guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. E. Graham.

Mrs. Wm. Stancliff and infant daughter came home from Burbank Wednesday.

Mr. L. T. Rowley and Dr. Glen Hammond attended the Four Counties Secretaries Association at Pasadena Saturday, December 16.

Capt. Cree, who has been ill at the Monta Vista Tavern, is able to be about again.

The Park hotel is again open to the public, Mrs. Branstetter having returned from her vacation in Los Angeles.

Miss Esther Nicholson received a beautiful piano from her father as a Christmas gift.

Mr. Gay Hitchcock was looking after his interests in Sunland Wednesday.

Mr. George, Mr. Wildie and Mr. Nobel finished their work on the survey for the state highway and returned to Los Angeles Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Barnhard has been suffering with an attack of the grip. Her son Bee is also sick.

The members of the Christian Endeavor of the First Baptist church will fill Christmas boxes for the inmates of the county hospital.

The Chamber of Commerce held their regular meeting Monday evening in the library room. Among the subjects under discussion was the postoffice, which has not been giving satisfactory returns for the time and attention given by our postmaster. Considering the rent of the building, electric lights and the postmaster's time, at a cancellation of less than an average of fifty cents a day. If Sunland wants to keep a postoffice it will be necessary to give it some support. A committee of five were appointed to see what could be done.

Saturday, the 16th, was a red letter day for the "Four Counties Secretaries Association," which met at Pasadena board of trade rooms on that date. After addresses of welcome by Mayor Hamilton and Mr. Wilcox, president of the board of trade, Professor Daymon of Throop college gave an address on city planning which so pleased those attending that he was asked to repeat it in Santa Ana by Secretary Mitzger of that place, and in San Francisco by Secretary Egilbert of the "California Development Board." After a complimentary luncheon at Hotel Maryland all were taken on a trip to Alpine tavern on Mount Lowe, where a banquet was served and speeches were delivered, then to the observatory where, whether owing to over indulgence or otherwise, two moons were plainly seen through the telescope. Then back to Hotel Maryland, where those who desired were welcomed to stay over night as the guests of Mr. Menard. Next January 24 to 26 is the state meeting at Sacramento.

"The Toy Shop" given by the pupils of the Monta Vista school was a decided success. The band and orchestra added much to the entertainment. The net proceeds was $25.90.

The Christmas service with appropriate exercises by the Sunday school and special music by the choir and orchestra will be held at the Baptist church Sunday evening, December 24. All are cordially invited to attend. Strangers especially welcome.

Mr. Nord Edgley is helping at the Broadway Department Store during the Christmas rush.

Now ready, all pull together for the building up of Sunland. Trade at home, even if the goods are a few cents higher. You will profit in the end. Throw the kicker over the bank. We have no room for him. Wear a smile. Have something good to say to the other fellow. With our general merchandise and grocery store, large stock of hardware, our lunch room, three good hotels, olive factory, garage, blacksmith shop, postoffice, the finest natural park in Southern California and a climate where the kiddies can go barefooted all winter, good schools, a church, within forty-five minutes' ride to Los Angeles, what more do we want to succeed? Everybody ready, pull.

Sunday morning the Rev. J. H. Avery, pastor of the Tujunga M. E. church, spoke on the subject of "Martyrdom," as recorded in Rev. 2:8-12.

Among other things he said: "We all have our trials and tribulations. Some people are better after they are run through God's threshing machine. We are not hunting trouble, but often trouble comes to us whether we hunt it or not and some of us are the better for it."

He also said in part: "Satan has a creed and a church. Satan's church is always right next door to a real live church, never next door to a dead one, and if Satan has his church next door to ours, it is good evidence that we are doing something."

This is the second of a series of sermons now going on each Sunday at the Tujunga M. E. church and which will continue with the exception of next Sunday, which will be a special Christmas sermon. All are welcome to attend.

As announced last week, the Tujunga M. E. S. S. will hold their Christmas exercises Saturday night, December 2, at 7:45 o'clock.

Special Christmas services at the Tujunga M. E. church next Sunday morning at 11 o'clock a. m. Music by the church orchestra.

Boy, don't shoot the robins; remember, there is a fine for every one killed.

THE LONG WAY AROUND

A teacher one day asked her class if they knew which was the longest word in the English language. A small hand waved frantically.

"Well, Johnny, what is the longest word?"

"Smiles," promptly answer Johnny.

"But that has only six letters." "Yes'm, I know it, but it's a mile between the first and last one."—The Christian Herald.

heathen?" father inquired at the dinner table.

"Yes," sir," answered Mary. "He said that they were often hungry, and when they beat on their tumtums it could be heard for miles."—New York Evening Post.

Olin Wilson and Donald Phillips of Glendale high are spending their holidays in the grocery business.

MORE FRIGHTFULNESS

Old Dame—"Tinpence a pound for candles, that's very dear, ain't it?" Grocer—"Yes, but you see, they are dearer now on account of the war."

Old Dame (in surprise)—"Lod a massy. You don't say so. An' be they a-fightin' by candle-light now?"—From Tht-Bits.
